THEY LYNCHED HIM.

A Colored Man Dealt With----Taken From the Train.

PROTESTING INNO CENCE..

A Brutal Murder---Mob Makes No Efforts at Disguise.

THE LAW DEFIED-ANARCHY IN VIRGINIA.

Charlottesville, July 12—John Henry James, the colored man who assaulted Miss Hotopp near here, was lynched near here by the infuriated citizens of Charlottesville and the county. Yesterday afternoon James was taken by the officers to Pen Park, where he was identified by the young woman as her assailant. They also carried him to the scene of the outrage, and ascertained by trying his shoes in the tracks found there that they could have been made by no other. He was then brought back and lodged in jail, a large crowd following the entire way. The officers were charry of admitting that he had been identified, but the crowd could not be deceived, and angry mutterings and threats of lynching were heard on every side.

in the rear of the car. The crowd then seized the man, and hustled him, along with Mr. Farish, cutside of the car, where they bound Mr. Farish, cutside of the car.

CARRIED TO STAUNTON.

In consequence of this it was thought and James was drawn up. best to remove the prisoner to Staun-ton for safety. This was accomplished in this way: About 8:30 o'clock in charge of Messrs. Nat. Martin, D. C. Grady, and Chief of Police Farish. the Grady, and Chief of Police Farish. the colored man was taken over the north wall of the jail yard, through some private premises, and out by the wine-cellar, up the Southern railway to the Union Station. There he was put aboard the west-bound freight on the Chesapeake and Ohio, which left at 9 o'clock, and was away on the road before the people knew anything about it. People were gathered in knots on the streets as late as 11 o'clock, disfore the people knew anything about it. People were gathered in knots on the streets as late as 11 o'clock, discussing the subject, and it became nec-essary to take some of them through the jail to ratisfy them that the man had really been taken away.

JUDGE WHITE ACTS. In the mean time Judge John M.

White, of the County Court, realizing that prompt and efficient means would have to be resorted to to calm the excited populace, issued summons for a grand jury to meet at 10 o'clock this morning. It was about 10:45 when the following gentlemen were sworn in: H. C. Marchant (foreman), Reuben Maury, John T. Antrim, J. D. Watson, R. H. Fife, H. C. Witt, and J. Z. Hal-laday. Captain Woods, Commonwealth's Atterney, thought it unneces sary to introduce any other witnestion. Before the investigation was concluded, or they had rendered a bill, news arrived that James had been taken from the train at Wood's Crossing

LODGED IN JAIL.

Chief-of-Police Farish and Sheriff Lucien Watts arrived with their pris-onerat Staunton at 11:30 last night. The prisoner was lodged in the city jail. Chief Farish bought him some sandwiches, which James said was the first food he had had since yesterday morning In the morning he professed to have rested well and smoked a cigar ette with cool indifference. He didn't seem disposed to give the officers any trouble, and when they boarded the train this morning for Charlottesville it was not considered necessary to handcuff him. He was brought down at 8, due here at 11:40.

A CROWD WAITING.

When the train was nearing Wood's Crossing, about four miles west of this city, the officers noticed a crowd at the station, and at once took in the situa-tion. Chief Farish immediately went to the front door of the smoking-car.
As soon as the train slowed up As soon as the train slowed up a number of men, unmasked, boarded the platforms, front and rear; all were armed with pistols, and there seemed to be about 150 in the crowd.

CLOSED THE DOOR.

Chief Farish closed the door and held the knob; in a twinkling he was pushed aside, the crowd rushing into the car sgainst his protest, and in perfect indifference to his presented pistol. Sheriff Watts had a similar experience them.

above declaration.

The rope was thrown over a limb about three inches in circumference,

FIRED INTO HIS BODY.

The limb jutted out from the tree at a sharp incline, so that the rope slid downwards towards the body of the

THE PROPLE KNEW IT.

The people in the city before the train came, heard rumors of the intention of the mob to lynch James at the crossing, and a number of persons started for that point, but few reached it before the deed was done. Among these was the brother of the young wo-man, who arrived about ten minutes after the hanging and emptied his pistol into the body.

THE PARCE AT CHARLOTTESVILLE.

The grand jury were still in session, and had reached the conclusion to bring in a true bill just as Mr. Cloud, of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, reached the court-house and announced that the prisoner had been the ed that the prisoner had been taken from the train and was probably lynchses than the young woman and her sister, and the jury retired to journed, and the Judge and Common their room to make their investigations wealth's Attorney rushed down the street to get more information, and, if possible, to devise means to prevent the lynching. They soon found, how-ever, that any effort in that direction would avail nothing, as the evidence that the deed was done was volumi-

THE CORONER WAS READY.

Coroner W. G. Brown was notified, and he proceeded to the scene of the tragedy at 2 o'clock.

Captain Woods, attorney for the Commonwealth, was seen, and was indisposed to say much about the affair.
He deprecated deeply the violent measures that had been taken, saying that he had positive evidence of the witter. he had positive evidence of the guilt of James.

The body of James was left hanging on the tree about two hours. Hundreds of people visited the scene this afternoon. Many of them gathered relies of the oscasion, taking some portions of his clothing, etc. His coat was riddled with bullets.

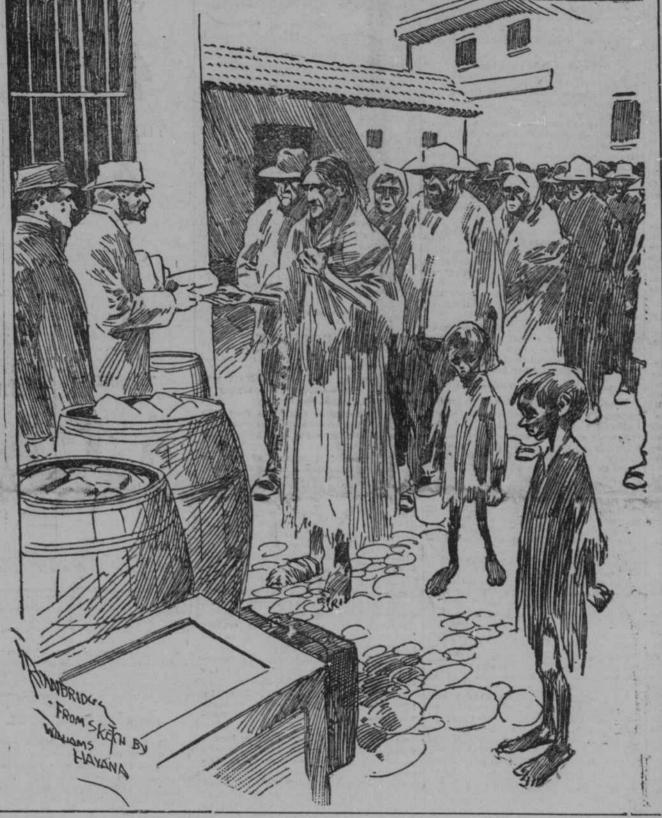

While the body hung there No. 4 passenger train passed the crossing, and the improvised gallows being in iew, the passengers were forced witnesses of a lynching.

When the mob dispersed they came away in any direction that suited them -some coming on to the city, others returning to their homes, all with a perfect indifference as to any future nvestigation.

YES, we want colored officers for colored troops wherever we can secure Spanish Refuges Receiving Food Near Santiago.

SAD TIMES IN CUBA.

Y. M. O. A. Notes.

The meetings in the rooms Sunday were very impressive and interesting. The men were addressed by Mr. V. L. Hawkins who gave a good practical

The boys who attended the meetings Sunday numbered fully one hundred.
A short talk was made by Acting Secretary, T. H. Wyatt, after which those who were not interested in the outing were dismissed while the others re-mained to perfect arrangements con-

The men will be addressed next Sun-day at 5:30 P. M., by Mr. Robert Holmes. We have been informed that Mr. Holmes is an eloquent speaker and all will do well to come and hear him. The silent hand of death has again visited the boys' department Y. M. C. A. Only a few months past our esteemed and beloved brother and coworker, R. T. Gilpin was called from labor to reward and again on last Sundan our esteemed, and heloved. Jessie day our esteemed and beloved Jessie C. Smith after considerable illness passed away. The funeral services which were very impressive took place at the Leigh St. M. E. Church. Tuesday evening at 4 P. M.

Memorial exercises will be held by the Y. M. C. A., in the near future in honor of him, being one of the grand-est and noblest characters of manhood that the Y. M. C. A. has yet produced. International Secretary, W. A. Hun-ton gave the men some very interesting facts Sunday concerning the Y. M. C. A., tent among the troops of North Carolina now stationed at Fort Macon. He has also made arrangements for commencing the work among the Virginia troops now encamped at Single-ton's farm. who will be put in charge we are not able to say at this writing.

A Conscientious Governor.

New Orleans, Southwestern Christian Advocate.]

Our esteemed contemporary, the Richmond Planst, John Mitchell, Jr., editor, has made a brave and interesting fight to have Virginia's two battalions of Afro-American troops mustered into service under their own of-ficers. This included two majors, who considered as efficient as any in the State. Strong influences were brought to bear upon the Governor to have all their officers removed and whites appointed in their stead, but Mitchell stood his ground under the watch word, "No officers, no fight!"

CLAIMS PAID.

MR. R. J. BASS. President of the People's Relief Association: Allow me to extend to you my heart-felt thanks for the kindness rendered Frank Harris by your company during his many weeks of sickness; and also the Thirty Dollars I received on ac-

May you live long and continue in such noble work. Mes. HENRIETTA LEE, 508 Louisiana St.

RICHMOND, VA., July 1, 1898. MR. E. A. WASHINGTON.

Dear Sir:-Allow me to thank you kindly for the prompt attention I received from your company, the People's Relief Association during my illness. Sir, I must confess that your doubtes. Company is strictly a reliable one, and I hope that your membership may continue to increase.

Yours for the advancement of the Company. JOSHUA E. BROWN, 1834 William St., (Sidney).

RICHMOND, VA., July 12, 1898.

This is to certify that I received of the People's Relief Association the sum of Nine Dollars cash, birth bene-fits, so therefore with many thanks to the Company, I wish them a speedy great sermon that Rev. Evans Payne,

Miss Ada G. Foster is visiting in

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

— Miss Virginia B. Harper is visit-ing friends and relatives in Washing-ton and Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Nannie A. Martin and her niece, Miss Emma E. Jones, left Mon-day, the 11th, to visit friends in New York and Astoria, Long Island.

-Miss Nannie B. Crump, of 603 W. Leigh Street, is at present in Philadelphia. Pa., visiting her brother Mr. Wm. Isaac Crump and her parents' friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W.

—Miss Lucy A. Trent of Cumber-land Co., Va., has been visiting the city during the past two weeks the guest of the Misses Isham, 809 N. 5th Street.

-Miss Lucy E. Brown of Freder icksburg, Va., was in the city this

-Mrs. Mynor H. Bass of Boston and Mrs. M. E. Faulk of New York are —Little Miss Arsena Robinson, daughter of Mrs. R. Eleanors Wesley, is spending the summer at Brook Hill, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Beard.

—Miss Julia A. Holmes left last Thorsday to spend several weeks in Philadelphia.

-Miss Lizzie Burrell, who has been indisposed, is out again.

-Mrs. Rosa K. Jones is visiting in Washington, D. C. She will return next week.

The friends of Mrs. Sarah Jackson, 121 W. Duval Street, are sorry to know that she is indisposed and glad to know that she is improving and hope for her speedy recovery. She is under the skillful treatment of Dr. Merriweather.

Go with the Working Sons of Hope to Staunton on Saturday night, July 28rd. The fare is only $1.50.

WHO IS C. H. PHILLIPS

The Elder Answers the Question -- Caustic Criticism.

A COSTLY MISTAKE—A LIFE OF USEFUL NESS.

He Does Not Travel to Secure Office-A Crushing Rejoinder.

In answer to an anonymous letter said to be from New York in last week's "Reformer," Mr. E. W. Brown, editor of the "Reformer," Chief Bureau of Information of the Grand Fountain, essays to give out some in-

WHO IS E. W. BROWN?

E. W. Brown is a broken down politician from Prince George County, only a few years ago was plowing corn and picking peanuts, begged for some thing to do in an institution that I had helped to build, an editor without experience or discretion, Chief of Bureau of Information and giving out false information because of ignorance of the history of the institution. I am informed that on one occasion he made a mistake and insured his 80 year-old grand-father in the order for $500. giving his age at less than 50 years. No wonder he made a mistake in my history which is as follows:

I was born in Louisa County, Va., May, 1857, of slave parents. My father was a colored man named Jacob Phillips, who had been duly married to my mother, Julia Phillips. I found myself free on the plantation at eight years of age. I began work in a tobacco factory at Fredericks Hall, Va. At 15 years of age I came to Richmond where I followed my trade as a factory hadd in several of the largest factories until I was about twenty years of age. thing to do in an institution that I had

I was convicted under the preaching of Rev. John Jasper and professed religion at the age of 21 years. I was baptized in Covington, Va., by Rev.

Fiat Beale.
After a few months I removed my membership to the Mount Garland Baptist Church, Louisa County, where I was licensed to preach. Returned to Richmond alternately as a factory hand, janitor of Wilkerson's Hall and as a wagoner on the streets. While working for my daily bread I gave all my spare timetolstudy. I often preached for Rev. Jasper and many of the oth er pastors of Richmond.

In 1878 I was married to Miss Melvina Dobson in Richmond, Va.

In 1884 I was called to the pastorate of the Union Baptist Church at Beaver Dam, Va. That charge is yet held by me as well as being pastor of the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church at Noels, Va.

THE ASSOCIATION'S PRESIDENT.

I have been and am now the President of the Mattoponi Baptist Associa-tion, composed of Baptist Churches of the counties of Hanover, Louisa, Caroline, Spottsylvania, Stafford, King William, Henrico, Chesterfield, Essex, King George, and the cities of Richmond, Manchester and Fredricksburg,

The record of this association for work is second to none in the state and is considered by competent judges to be one of the best. It has contrib-uted largely for mission work, both Home and Foreign. It gives special attention to the educational interests of the Baptists and has contributed over $500.00 to the Virginia Seminary as well as fitting up two rooms at that institution. It is now raising an addi-tional $500 to be paid in the near fu-

AN EVANGELIST TO THE SINFUL.

Since resigning my position as deputy of the Grand Fountain, I have given much of my time to evangelistic work, having conducted large and successful meetings in various points in this state as well as in Washington and New York. I have worked for some of the ablest divines in the denomination and from the results, I am satisfied that something was accomplished for the

I am President of the Progressive Joint Stock Association of Hanover, Louisa, Caroline and Spottsylvania Counties. Deacon h. F. Robinson is one of the Directors.

NEVER TRAVELLED FOR OFFICE.

It has never been necessary for me to travel from place to place advertising myself nor asking for office. God whom I serve has always found a work

AS A TRUE REFORMER.

In 1885 I became acquainted with Rev. William W. Browne, whom I met on the train to Beaver Dam. I did not know him nor did he know me. On him to Mr. Samuel Taylor's house with me. We were both cordially received by brother Taylor. After resting Rev. Browne explained his plans to me in detail and as I was impressed with the same I asked him to accompany me to church next day and preach for me after which I would give him an opportunity to speak to the people. On Sunlay, he preached an acceptable sermon and afterwards lectured to my congregation. A convention of 26 congregation. A convention of 26 members was formed and of that number Rev. W. L. Taylor was one.

REV. BROWNE'S APPOINTED.

Rev. Browne's appointed me a deputy to help him spread the work in the adjacent counties. As neither of us had money to hire conveyances, we walked from place to place going sometimes as far as eight miles to meet appointments. As food was scarce and no money to pay for it we feasted on wild grapes.

The Fountain at Beaver Dam was organized about thirty days after the convention was started. I opened a convention at Frederick's Hall, Va., where I was assisted in organizing the Fountain by W. P. Burrell I organized five Fountains in Louisa County before I attempted to go out on the field and travel for the order.

I was assigned to duty in West Virginia and the same and the same and the same as a same and the sa

I was assigned to duty in West Virginia where I succeeded in organizing one Fountain and putting over fifty members in the Classes.

At Ashland, Ky., a Rosebud was organized by me as well as a Fountain at Ironton, O.

WORK AT PITTSBURGH.

At Pittsburg, Pa., I introduced the work of the True Reformers and on my first visit organized two Fountains. When I left Pittsburg there were ten Fountains organized by me and one Rosebud. At Middleton and Kennet Square, Ps., I also organized Fountains.

I was at no time Chief of Philadel-phia, Pa., but as Deputy General in charge of Division, No. 1, I made my headquarters for a time at Philadel-phia where I organized the first Foun-

I was the first to introduce the order at Wilmington, Del., and at Chester, Pa. I organized the first Fountain at Newark, Del., which had been worked up by Rev. E.T. Anderson.

In New York City, I organized one

GOES TO WASHINGTON UNDER PROTEST.

In the winter of 1893-4 I traveled with the Grand Master on a tour of instruction, visiting several large Divisions; afterwards I was assigned to look after the work in Caroline, Spottsylvania and King George Counties.

In April, 1894, in obedience to ungent orders from the G. W. Master I reported to the office at Richmond, where, after a conference, it was decided that I should take charge of Washington, D. C. I was not in favor of this, but yielded. On arriving at Washington we found the whole Divi-Washington we found the whole Division in favor of a Washington man for chief Against the protest of the Division I was installed and I put my whole heart into the work. I attended to the business of the D. vision and organized several conventions in Maryland and Virginia and put many members in Classes. When I was installed as chief Rev. Browne presented me as a token of his confidence and esteem with a suit of clothes, an overcoat, a hat and a pair of shoes

At Washington, I met and trained Mr. J. W. Branson, who was then one of the canvassers and deputies.

A GENERAL LECTURER.

At the session of 1894 the Washingown number as chief and I was returned to Washington at an officers meeting held in Richmond Rev. Browne complimented my record and said that as a builder I had outstripped against one class in appending the work. every one else in spreading the work abroad where it had not been before A QUESTION OF FINANCE.

After returning to Washington I found that for the compensation I was then receiving I could not afford to leave my family as I had done before and I so reported to the Grand Master and other executive officers. They could not see their way clear to give me living wages so I resigned at once and sent in my resignation in writing. Thus my official connection with the True Reformers enced, but I have at all times upheld the principles of the all times upheld the principles of the Order and maintain my membership in all the departments.

I am at present general agent for the 'Virginia Baptist.' To this I am giving all my spare time in order to advance the interests of the Baptist cause. While traveling in the interest of the Baptist I have, wherever convenient spoken in the interest of the Baptist I have, wherever convenient spoken in the interest of the Baptist I have, wherever convenient spoken in the interest of the spoken in the spo ient, spoken in the interest and for what I conceived to be the best interest of the Grand Fountain. For further information as to who is C. H. Phillips, I beg to refer to the Baptist ministry of Virginia, especially those connected with the Mattaponi Association, and the Baptist State

> C. H. PHILLIPS, Beaver Dam, Va.

Editor Barnett's Tribute.

Omaha, Neb., Progress.]

The RICHMOND PLANET made its appearance this week in an enlarged form, both in size, local and editorial matter. The Planer easly out ranks all competitors, and the patronage it is arriving at Beaver Dam, we both got off and he came up to me and asked strangely enough, "Who is U. H. Phillips and where can I see him?"

I introduced myself to him and after learning his mission, I agreed to take pearance this week in an enlarged form, both in size, local and editorial matter. The Planer easly out ranks all competitors, and the patronage it is receiving is evidence of the fact that the people of Richmond appreciates a good newspaper.